

Labor & Education

High school students can apply to state-funded language programs abroad

Program entails a two-week intensive course in UK, Ireland, Malta, France, Germany, Austria, or China

Hungarian Insider • November 14, 2019 🔥 28 📄 Less than a minute

Photo credit: Mycroft

Starting in February, students in grades 9 and 11 at upper secondary and vocational secondary schools will be able to apply to spend part of their summer in another country to learn a foreign language. Hungary's ministerial commissioner for foreign language courses for students, Mónika Bartos, said that information about the program will be available starting November 30, including which foreign language schools will participate.

Students who have completed the B2 Complex Language Exam or passed

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. If you continue to use this site we will assume that you are happy with it.

OkPrivacy policy