

This is Aishwarya Dutta, a student of St Xavier's College, Kolkata. My schooling started in my hometown Midnapore in a school named Royal Academy affiliated to the Council for the Indian School Certificate Examination. I appeared for my 10th Board Exams in 2016 and scored 93.6%. I changed my school in 11th standard and joined Vidyasagar Shishu Niketan, another well-known school in the town affiliated to CISCE. I took the humanities stream and my subjects were History, Geography, Political Science, Environmental Science. I scored 98.5% in my 12th board exams which I took in 2018, with an All India 5th rank and also got recognition and felicitated by Smt. Mamata Banerjee, Chief Minister of West Bengal. At present I am pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Political Science. I have been scoring between 70 to 80 per cent for my first three semesters. My fourth and fifth semester marks are yet to come. I am looking forward to a masters in International Relations. My aim is to work in an international organization so that I could work with a vision of making a better world together.
