Objectives of the Post-graduate Academic Programme in Painting (CBCS)

The Post-graduate academic programme in Painting provides and ample scope for the students to gradually develop their technical as well as theoretical efficiency about Art. This post-graduate academic programme also gives a sufficient opportunity for getting the students introduced with the world art and the pertinent perspective of art and society. In this academic programme, the students also get the opportunity to explore themselves by opting a paper like OEC (Open Elective Course) which allows them to get well experienced in a subject other than of their own stream.
