TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Blessy Mariam Sunny, who was a student in the Bachelor of Law program at School of Law, Christ (Deemed to be University) between 2014-2019. I have had the pleasure to teach Blessy in her eighth semester in my capacity as her subject professor in 'Criminal Law II'. She has the passion and eagerness to learn new concepts and strives to go into the details. She impressed me with her ability to be articulate about difficult texts and concepts. It was also her willingness to go the extra mile than the prescribed syllabus, that has earned her my praise.

As her professor, I recall, a very well researched paper that she wrote on 'Gender Neutral Laws in India'. Through her paper she brought out the idea that policies, statutes and social institutions should avoid distinguishing roles according to one's sex or gender, and emphasize on the equal treatment of men and women legally allowing no room for discrimination. She very articulately put forth this legal problem and concluded with impressive recommendations. The paper submitted by her stood out from the rest and remains a crown jewel. Blessy had much to contribute to class discussions wherein she had her own independent interpretations on the provisions of law and when called upon to defend her view points, she spoke clearly, eloquently and demonstrated excellent reasoning skills in presenting and defending her choice. She consistently maintained her poise, a sense of humor and an insatiable appetite for learning throughout the semester.

Overall, Blessy's attributes are as impressive as her professional accomplishments. She is an outgoing and active presence in the class that helped make the classroom environment a lively place and a safe place to take intellectual risks. She is an intelligent, well-rounded, and grounded individual who challenges herself and actively seeks new opportunities and experiences. She has the determination, maturity, and intelligence to succeed in any endeavour and always maintains a positive attitude. Her academic and personal achievements show that she is committed to her academics and goes out her comfort zone to achieve the best. She exudes confidence and has a vivid, outgoing, and friendly personality that allows her to get along very well in any setting. She interacts well with her peers be it in the classroom setting or with the broader diverse student population where she is well known as a balanced individual with a warm personality and sense of humour. As her professor, I admire her intelligence, sincerity, honesty, and integrity and am impressed by her discipline as an independent learner. She is a highly motivated individual with a thirst for knowledge. She is also open to feedback and continues to learn, a strength that will serve her well in the future.

Blessy Mariam Sunny would truly be a superior addition to your esteemed institution and has my highest recommendation without reservations to whichever program that she chooses to enrol in. Her curiosity, combined with her willingness to go the extra mile leads me to believe that there will be no limit to her ability to succeed in the future. If I can be of any further assistance, or provide you with any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours Sincerely,

Avinash K.

TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

It is my pleasure and a matter of pride to write a letter of recommendation for Ms Blessy Mariam Sunny. I have had the privilege to know her as a student in my class on 'Alternative dispute resolution' and subsequently 'Public interest litigation' during the ninth and tenth Semester of 2018- 2019 academic session. What particularly struck me was her exemplary commitment towards her work and a dedicated passion to achieve and excel in whatever she chose to do. Blessy was an excellent researcher who understood how to apply basic information to specific scenarios. More impressively, she handled difficult question from her fellow students with grace and confidence at all times. Even when her choice deviated from the "correct" answer, she coined an excellent reasoning behind the same. I noticed that she never gave herself any other option but to do her best and achieve her goal.

Through all the subjects that I have taught Blessy, I have seen her take a multi-disciplinary approach towards the academics. I recall an outstanding presentation that she made on 'Dispute Resolution' where she dealt with negotiation and mediation- a comparison between Indian and International Laws, with precise articulation of her points to put forth its legal aspects, and the inter-relationship established with her quoting practical examples. The presentation had a lasting effect on the class and threw new light on the concept. As her professor, I have found her to be intelligent, conscientious, motivated and responsible students who masters the theory and applies it well.

Students and faculty often noted Blessy's considerable talent and acknowledged how hard she worked to develop it. She is a motivated young woman of numerous talents and considerable self-discipline. Blessy's exceptional ability to articulate her thoughts and viewpoints convincingly, supported by deep research, her grit and determination, perseverance, integrity and strength of character will take her to the greatest heights in her chosen career. It was always a pleasure to interact with Blessy given her strong motivation, talent and capability for independent work. She is an intelligent, well-rounded, and grounded individual who challenges herself and actively seeks new opportunities and experiences. She has the determination, maturity, and intelligence to succeed in any endeavour and always maintains a positive attitude. Her academic and personal achievements show that she is committed to her education and will work hard to achieve the set goals. She exudes confidence and has a vivid, outgoing, and friendly personality that allows her to get along with others very well in any setting. She interacts well with her peers, be it in the classroom setting or with the broader diverse student population where she is well known as a balanced individual with a warm personality and sense of humour.

Blessy Mariam Sunny has always put her best foot forward in whatever she does and has done so with humility and a willingness to learn. I believe with a degree in Law, she has made herself, her family, her institution and her country proud and has also proved to be an asset to her desired profession. She has my recommendation for admission in an institution of her choice. I am certain that she will achieve great things in the future and will be an asset. If I can be of any further assistance, or provide you with any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
