TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing this letter with great pleasure in favour of my student Ms. Kiran Ravindra Sangar who desires to complete her Master's program at your esteemed university. I have known Kiran in my capacity as her Professor of Bachelors of Business Administration in International Business for over three years now. I had the opportunity to evaluate her overall performance which is satisfactory and meticulous.

During her undergraduate course, I taught her the courses of 'financial accounting', 'Cost Accounting' and 'International financial management' in the first, third and eighth trimesters respectively. Within the period of her studies, she has shown herself as a disciplined, reliable and diligent student with the comprehensive knowledge in different areas. Kiran demonstrated her deep interest and learning skills during the whole duration of her course, as well as actively participated in discussions.

As a person she is an extremely confident, mature and kind human being, and displays traits of seasoned professional. I sincerely believe Kiran will bring her unique energy, optimism, passion, and creativity to your class and University as a whole. I therefore recommend her as a noteworthy candidate for your esteemed institute with all possible financial aid.

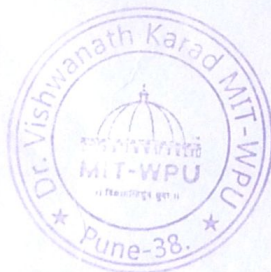

Yours Sincerely,

Prof Mugdha Paranjape
