Letter of Recommendation

As the Head of the Department, I am pleased and honoured to write the recommendation letter for my student, Miss. T. Lydia in support of her desire to pursue her Master's degree from your prestigious institution.

Miss T. Lydia is a student of Bachelors in Psychology in the Department of Psychology from the year 2016 to 2019. During this time as a student, she displayed a lot of skills which includes creativity skills, team works skills in tackling the different assignments assign to her in a group or individually. She exhibits interpersonal skills which is one of the important skills in this course.

Miss T. Lydia performance record shows that she has earned good grades, and her subject teachers report that Miss T. Lydia is one of their best learners, having never been involved in any problem in class. Since her first year, she has been a hardworking, focused and an attentive student in whatever she does.

I highly recommend Miss T. Lydia as in a student in your institution. I am confident she will make an excellent student. I wish her every success in her future endeavours.
