To Whomever It May Concern

I am Dr Jyothi K, Professor in Department of Information Science Engineering at J N N College of Engineering affiliated to Visvesvaraya Technological University. I am extremely pleased to be writing a letter of recommendation for Ms. Archana J V, for her admission to your esteemed university, as part of the Master's program in Computer Science.

It's with a great gratification I recommend Ms. Archana J V to your venerated university for her Master's program. She was the student of undergraduate studies under the Department of Information Science Engineering at J N N College of Engineering affiliated to Visvesvaraya Technological University. She has a good communication and leadership skills, also having a decent grade in academics. She has led many teams from front and never let anyone down. She can effectively outdo various assignments with positive outcome. I have also noticed she has been part of many co-curricular activities as well.

She carries her duties with due diligent and enthusiasm thus giving out her best. She is very focused, and she is a student of good character and team builder. With my knowledge, I know she has the necessary skills and expertise to perform the duties assigned to her timely. On a personal level, I was delighted when she approached me to write a recommendation for her admission to your esteemed institute. I am certain that the international exposure and modern technologies offered by your institute will benefit her professional career greatly. With her sincere work ethic and never give up attitude towards life, I fully expect her to excel academically and conduct valuable research. I wish her all the best for her career ahead.

Thank You

Yours Sincerely,

Dr Jyothi K,
