Letter of Recommendation

I have known Mr. Shubhankar Das as one of my students of B.Sc Biotechnology program at Department of Biotechnology, Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya.

Shubhankar is very hardworking and dedicated and often spends long hours at the department performing experiments. He is a quick and avid learner. Shubhankar is confident and is not afraid to take up challenges. His academic performance is excellent. He is innovative and improvises as per need. He is an amicable person and can work in a team. He can plan and execute experiments efficiently. Shubhankar has the abilities and inherent capabilities to excel academics. He is curious, innovative and dedicated with zeal to acquire knowledge and succeed in his endeavors

He is good student as is evident from his academic record. He has interest in the scientific studies and innovation. He is a team worker with acumen to work independently as and when required. I strongly recommend him for admission to Master's Program.
