LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I am please to recommend Mr. P. Nagaraju for admission into your esteemed institution for completion of Master degree. I have known Nagaraju for the past two years. As a Assistant professor. I have taught his some of the core disciplines such as "Management & Organizational Behavior", "Business Environment", "Strategic Management" and "International Marketing" in his various semesters of Master of Business Administration. With this long coordination to Nagaraju, I declare him a sincere student and I am satisfied with his performance in the class as well in the laboratories.

Mr. Nagaraju is a very industrious and an attentive student. As a matter of fact I was the project coordinator to his work in the final demister. The way in which he dealt with the project is praise-worthy. Though I was declared the project guide to this student, it is he who had been working on the project really hard all through him course time. His ability to organize time efficiently and meticulous preparation will be an asset to any research team he joins.

Therefore, I take pleasure in strongly recommending admission for Mr. Nagaraju in your graduate school and for any financial assistance you can offer. Pursuing graduate study at your prestigious graduate school will provide his with an ideal platform upon which he can build a successful career. His intelligence and pleasing personality make his an asset for the graduate program at your university. I am confident that his sincerity added to his perseverance and good potential for research would enable to make rapid strives in his career and accustom his to any situation.
