Letter of Recommendation for Ms. Ansari Humdan Abdul Rashid

It is my pleasure to write a letter of recommendation for Humdan Ansari, I have taught him "Administrative Law & Constitutional Law". I have known him for his assignments and project submission. His thirst for pure knowledge beyond the syllabus is one of the most remarkable qualities that make him one of the best students seen in my career so far.

I noticed that he has an inquisitive bent of mind, from the queries he raised during lecture sessions. This trait of him coupled with good analytical skills, also helped him achieve good results in his work assignments. He has always participated in class activities with zeal and has always been forthcoming with answers to questions raised by me during the lecture sessions.

He exhibit a high degree of initiative in continuously striving to update his knowledge he tries to ensure that his concepts on various topics to be clear and therefore he is an active participant in classroom he is regular in completing his assignments and his assignments are among the best in the class besides so doing well in academics he has also been involved in various co-curricular activities he is capable of coping with the lot of hard work which is essential for higher academics attainments and this along with his superior intellectual ability makes him an ideal candidate for Masters studies. He is a pleasant and well mannered individual with high moral and social values along with his intellectual abilities, he has excellent communication skills. I found him to be proficient in English, being able to convey his ideas lucidly and with great ease. His conscious and lively nature makes it a pleasure to interact with him.

I am sure he will do extremely well in his Masters studies and based on his strong preparation and effective communication skills, I recommend him for Masters programme in your esteemed university with maximum financial aid.

Letter of Recommendation for Mr. Ansari Humdan Abdul Rashid

When "Humdan Ansari" requested me to recommend him for the masters program in your esteemed institution. I asked him to explain why he believes that he is equipped to pursue a career in law and how he can contribute to the program -Humdan Ansari did some introspection and returned with a cogent explanation of where he wants to end up in the field of law and why this makes him stand out among peers. I taught him "Law of Torts" & "Civil procedure code" during his higher studies. He came prepared for lectures and asked thought provoking questions. He was amongst the sincere students in his class; an active student with a panache when it came to class decorum; enthusiastic about the class discussions on the subject and most importantly the one to invariably bring about a consensus in the group when certain debatable topics were brought up for discussion. In the class discussions I observed his ability to put forth his ideas concisely and propose analytical arguments that were both clear and persuasive .

Apart from this he also engaged in group study sessions and helped his batch mates with difficult concepts of the subject. His assignments were well- written, well -supported, organized neat and timely. Adding to all this "Humdan Ansari" is a very congenital person, well liked by his teachers and peers.

Thus, I would recommend him for your university's masters program because of my awareness of his strong foundation in these subjects and his passion to excel. I also feel that he would be an asset to your esteemed university. I'm sure you will find him to be a student whose talents will only shine further through your masters program.
