LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

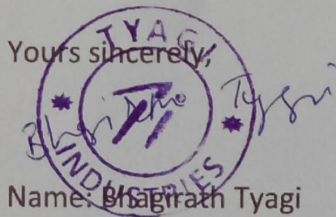

With Great pleasure, I am writing this reference letter in support of Mr. Ravi Dongliya who is applying to the master's program at your prestigious University. I have known Mr. Ravi from over six years now, when he used to work in other company. I taught him so many productive Skills at my work place, respectively. Through my observation, I would like to say that he is attentive and studious and a personality with positive attitude towards his work. He is eager to learn more skills to get successful.

Throughout his work, Ravi has shown great interest in learning techniques. We engaged in several courses and discussions in which, he confidently talked about his aspirations towards higher education. Besides this, he has also gained experience in numerous simple concepts that are highly valuable for the future generation. As a person who is always ready to take up responsibility, he carries out his duties with immense dedication and responsibility

Throughout in six months, I realized he always supported his peers and all staff members. I am certain that he is going to continue to do great and creative things in future and standout as an individual at your university.

I sincerely believe Ravi will bring his unique energy, optimism, passion, and tireless creativity to your class and University as a whole. Thus, he has my highest endorsement for admission into his desired course at your University. If you have any questions about this recommendation, please do not hesitate to contact me for I will gladly try to help.

Yours sincerely,
