During UG the NMR topic in chemistry was too fascinating that evolved curiosity to learn more about the instrumental studies, which enhances my interests to study chemistry (analytical chemistry).

➤ Hobbies:

Singing, reading, painting, watching Korean and Chinese series and learning different languages through these series.

➤ Skills:

Languages known- Hindi, Marathi and English.

Computer course- MS-CIT, Tally.

Sports: Volleyball, Kho-Kho.

➤ Future Plans:

I wish to study MSc in UK along-with the further courses like PhD and want to join the research team. I have already passed the English Fluency Test (IELTS) with a score of 6.5. I also wish to study abroad to learn different culture from UK.
