To whomsoever it may concern

I, the undersigned M. Jayraj, being a English faculty of Akshara Junior College has taught Ms. M.Harika, the subject of BIPC at Intermediate Course , I found her to be very hard working and blessed with a propensity for continuous improvement. She attended the classes regularly and always used to keep on doing innovative study in her subject even beyond the scope of her syllabus. Her imagination and direction of thinking is good. She is polite in her manner and has good ability to work in teams; this was evident from her interaction with fellow students at our college. I am confident that Ms. M.Harika will adapt well to the demands of the under graduation programme and would be an asset to any institution and course, she wishes to pursue. I wish her success in her future endeavor.
