A Message from our Founder

"Education is not the filling of a vessel, but the lighting of a fire. As a former Principal of premium CBSE schools and an author, I have spent my life understanding the nuances of learning and the importance of cultural identity. At Vidya.com, we bring that same educational rigor to overseas consultancy.

We understand that when a student moves from any part of India to a campus in Europe, Australia or any other continent or country, they aren't just changing locations - they are changing their life's trajectory. My team and I are here to ensure that journey is handled with the care of a teacher and the precision of an expert."

THE HORNBILL SONG

Holud Paakhir Gaan
A story of love across worlds

“

For three decades, my life at Yes Vidya has been about helping students find their destination. But I've always believed that education isn't just about degrees—it's about the stories we carry and the cultures we bridge. My debut novel, The Hornbill Song, is born from that same passion. It's a story of two worlds—Nagaland and Bengal—and the music that connects them. Just as I guide students to navigate new horizons, my characters in the novel navigate the complexities of love, time, and identity. Writing this has reminded me that no matter where we go in the world, our roots remain our strongest anchor.
