

CONDITIONAL ADMISSION LETTER

14/07/2023

Dear Naveen Chandel,

On behalf of the Rome Business School Admissions Office, I would like to congratulate you on the successful outcome of your interview. Your application to attend Rome Business School's International Master in Digital Marketing and Business Transformation has been accepted.

We are sure that attending Rome Business School will enable you to achieve your professional and personal goals. To be admitted to Rome Business School and receive a formal offer letter, your acceptance is conditional upon having successfully met all application requirements prior to enrolling with our business school.

To be admitted, you must first accept this condition and pay the minimum 2.000€ tuition deposit and upload the required documentation. Upon completion of the remaining tuition balance, you will be full enrolled as a student and will receive full support and visa application support from Rome Business School.

We look forward to welcoming you as one of us. If you would like to join our worldwide network of better managers working to build a better world, we are thrilled to have you.

On behalf of the entire RBS community, congratulations.

Rome Business School
